

PALAFITOS: FOUR ARCHITECTURAL PROJECTS FOR THE RECOVERY OF A NEIGHBORHOOD

Posted on July 5, 2022 by xavigonzalez

---

Categories: Audio&visual, Contributors, Densities, Formats, Middle Density, Pablo Casals-Aguirre, Territory and mobility, The Architecture Player, Topics, Urban Paradigms

Tags: Architecture, Chile, Community, Neighborhood, Refitting Places, Report, Tourism, Transformation, Waterfront, Wood construction

"Palafitos" narrates a new stilt landscape by the sea. The recovery and redevelopment of the neighborhood of Chiloé (Castro, Chile) is depicted through a poetic exploration of four architectures designed by Ortuzar and Gebauer Architects.

