

Unprecedented Pyongyang.
Dongwoo Yim

UNPRECEDENTED PYONGYANG

Posted on August 24, 2017 by Urban UrbanNext

---

Categories: [\[UN\] Precedented Pyongyang](#), Actar, Dongwoo Yim, Essay, expanding design practices, High Density, Politics and economics, Territory and mobility

Tags: Architect's role, City, Designer's role, Essay, Future cities, Korea, North Korea, Notes towards a History of Urbanism, Political implications, Political jurisdiction, Post-war society, Pyongyang, Redesigned city, Social commitment, Social culture, Social habitat, Socialist concepts, Urban planning, Urban sprawl

urbanNext Lexicon

Unprecedented Pyongyang
<https://urbannext.net/unprecedented-pyongyang/>

As we witnessed from many post socialist cities in Eastern Europe, Russia, and China, economic growth and political transition has supplied the formula for exceptionally radical and quick transformations of a city. Since adopting market-oriented systems, post socialist cities have become "blue oceans" for new investments. Pyongyang, the capital city of North Korea, is one of few socialist cities in the world that has not adopted this new economic model.

Full content is available only for registered users. Please login or

ISSN : 2575-5374